

Town of Exeter, New Hampshire
A Proclamation

Community Media Day Resolution
October 20, 2022

- Whereas,* The sharing of ideas and information helps to build common understanding and common values, and is critical for the healthy functioning of a diverse community;
- And Whereas,* Community media organizations provide people with skills, equipment and facilities necessary for the creation and sharing of stories, knowledge, and ideas through media;
- And Whereas,* Community media is an important resource for participating in local democratic policy and processes, and keeps local government transparent and accessible;
- And Whereas,* People benefit from increased awareness of diverse and valuable programming on public, education, and government access channels or digital platforms;
- And Whereas,* Exeter TV plays a vital role in building community by encouraging conversations about common interests, increasing discourse around policy issues, fostering an understanding of local cultures, and sharing information to improve lives;
- Now, therefore,* I, Niko Papakonstantis, Select Board Chair of the Town of Exeter, do hereby proclaim October 20, 2022 as Community Media Day within the Town of Exeter, NH. All people are hereby called upon to promote the importance of community media, availability of public access channels to be used by the public, and programming available on Exeter TV's broadcast channels 13, 22, and 98, as well as its many digital platforms.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Town of Exeter to be affixed this 11th day of October of the year of our Lord Two Thousand and Twenty-Two.

Niko Papakonstantis,
Select Board Chair, Exeter, NH
