Organizational Overview

Incorporated in 2003, Seacoast Family Promise is part of a national network of Family Promise affiliates originally founded in 1988. Family Promise works toward the prevention and ending of homelessness for families with children by mobilizing local communities to address the needs of this vulnerable population.

In its foundation, Seacoast Family Promise engaged local communities to operate a rotation of facilities otherwise left underutilized, to provide shelter to families in need. Through the generosity and support of local churches, congregations, and community organizations, Seacoast Family Promise operated via a rotational network, providing temporary shelter to the families served until 2020. With the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, came the closure of many community buildings and congregations, and the loss of many volunteers. SFP navigated these challenges and was able to purchase a static shelter facility, and remain open, ensuring no families were left without a home.

The mission of Seacoast Family Promise (SFP) is to empower families with children who are experiencing homelessness to achieve lasting self-sufficiency through a community-based approach. SFP's programs provide a vast array of assistance for families, helping to guide them throughout their entire journey from unhoused to stable housing and beyond. Last year, SFP aided 41 Exeter residents, belonging to 14 families with 24 children. We anticipate assisting the same or more Exeter residents in the upcoming year.

While in the SFP program, families are provided with safe family shelter in a home-like setting, where each family has their own bedroom. In addition to meeting their basic needs, of shelter and food, families receive individualized case management, offering them the support and tools necessary to navigate financial planning and budgeting, good tenancy, employment and education advancement, and so much more.

Seacoast Family Promise's core goals and areas of programing include shelter, case management, aftercare services, through our Home Again program, and affordable housing. Over the past 20 years of operation, SFP has served 314 families, consisting of 979 individuals, 578 children under the age of 18, 293 being age 5 and under. On average 90% of Seacoast Family Promise families move to stable or transitional housing. 68% of the households served are single mothers. Included in this are two single mothers currently housed through our affordable housing apartments located in Exeter, NH. The programs and services allotted to all SFP families provide the opportunity to focus on their needs, address challenges preventing them from securing housing, and build a foundation of stability to ensure long-term success.

Shelter: Families are provided with individual bedrooms, in a safe home setting where all their basic needs are met. This provides families with a temporary place to call home while identifying barriers and addressing needs as they work toward securing housing.

Case Management: Case plans are individualized to support the unique needs of each family. This provides them with the skills and tools necessary to secure employment or education, budget, apply for services, obtain health and mental health care, and more, allowing them to build the foundation necessary to secure and sustain stable housing.

Aftercare: Families who have transitioned out of shelter, are welcomed to be a part of our "Home Again" aftercare program, providing them with any case management services they identify as a need, ensuring long-term stability. Aftercare families are welcome to participate at any level and may receive help during the holidays or back to school, ongoing financial management, resources and referrals, application assistance, financial support, and so much more.

Affordable Housing: Seacoast Family Promise owns and manages two affordable apartment units, currently housing two single mothers and their children. This provides long-term independent living for families who previously could not afford or were unable to secure housing due to a variety of barriers.

Grant funding from the Town of Exeter will be used to support our family shelter program.

Program Changes and Highlights

With family homelessness on the rise in many areas, and affordable housing options shrinking for families in the Seacoast area, SFP has seen our waitlist for shelter growing every year. To that end, we have expanded our shelter building in Greenland, and by the end of 2025, we will be able to provide shelter to up to 9 families at a time. This is three times the number of families we have traditionally been able to accommodate at one time. While our capacity is increasing, the core programs, values, and mission remain the same. Every family at SFP will have access to safe shelter, meals, basic needs, and individualized case management to help them move from unhoused to home.

Another exciting change at SFP is primarily staff related. In June, a new Executive Director came on board, bringing with her decades of nonprofit experience, primarily in fundraising, outreach, and management for organizations providing shelter, mental health, and substance use disorders care. In addition to a new ED, SFP promoted our long-time Program Director to the role of Family and Community Services Director. This reorganization will allow for increased community outreach, collaboration, fundraising, and management, which will all lead to better, more streamlined, fully-funded services for our clients.

SFP envisions a community in which every family has a home, a livelihood, and the foundation on which to build a better future together. With help from our supporters, like the Town of Exeter, we can build upon our current programming success and help more families stabilize, and find and keep housing.

Brief Summary of 2024 Funding Usage

Last year, SFP provided assistance to 41 Exeter residents, belonging to 14 families with 24 children. Families participated in our shelter program, aftercare program, and affordable housing program.

Dear :

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement with you and to clarify the nature and extent of the services we will provide. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we ask all clients for whom returns are prepared to confirm the following arrangements.

We will prepare your federal and state exempt organization returns from information which you will furnish to us. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information.

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You should retain all the documents, cancelled checks and other data that form the basis of these returns. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them.

You should also know that the IRS audit procedures will almost always include questions on bartering transactions and on deductions that require strict documentation such as travel and meals, business usage of automobiles, and charitable donations. In preparing your returns, we rely on your representations that we have been informed of all bartering transactions and that you understand and have complied with the documentation requirements for your expenses and deductions. If you have any questions about these issues, please contact us.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations and/or other irregularities, should any exist. We will render such accounting and bookkeeping assistance as determined to be necessary for preparation of the tax returns.

The Internal Revenue Code and regulations impose preparation and disclosure standards with noncompliance penalties on both the preparer of a tax return and on the taxpayer. To avoid exposure to these penalties, it may be necessary in some cases to make certain disclosures to you and/or in the tax return concerning positions taken on the returns that do not meet these standards. Accordingly, we will discuss tax positions that may increase the risk of exposure to penalties and any recommended disclosures with you before completing the preparation of the return.

The IRS permits you to authorize us to discuss, on a limited basis, aspects of your return for one year after the return's due date. Your consent to such a discussion is evidenced by checking a box on the return. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will check that box authorizing the IRS to discuss your return with us.

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination, we will be available upon request to represent you and will render additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred.

Our fees are based upon the time and complexity of the engagement. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation. Finance charges are added to unpaid balances at the rate of 1.5% per month (18% per year) after 30 days.

As your service provider, we are committed to the safekeeping of your confidential information and we maintain physical and electronic safeguard to protect your information. For further information on our privacy policy please contact us.

If the foregoing fairly sets forth your understanding, please sign the enclosed copy of this letter in the space indicated and return it to our office. However, if there are other tax returns you expect us to prepare, please inform us by noting so at the end of the return copy of this letter.

We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.

Very truly yours,

Youngclaus & Company PLLC
