On Wednesday, September 19th at 5:00 pm, the Exeter Planning Board conducted a site walk in conjunction with the application of Exeter Rose Farm, LLC for an open space subdivision and associated site improvements on the properties located on Oak Street Extension and Forest Street.

Attendees included Planning Board members Langdon Plumer, Gwen English, Kathy Corson, John Grueter, Nick Gray, Robin Tyner, and Kristen Murphy (in the absence of Dave Sharples), the applicant and their representatives as well as several members of the public.

The group met at Jailhouse Spring and walked the centerline of the proposed Rose Farm Lane to the site of the proposed cul-de-sac, and returned along Oak Street Extension back to the spring. Various components of the proposal were discussed. No motions were acted on.

The walk concluded at 6:57 pm.
